On August 3, 2010 at approximately 0030 hrs the Holden Police responded to the area of Flagler Drive for a report of car breaks. Officers responded to the area of Flagler Drive and shortly after Det. Albert Bourget observed two males cutting through yards in the Raymond Street area. As the two males were running through the woods one of them lost a shoe. This shoe is a size 8 America Hsu performance skate style sneaker. (See the picture on the following page). A K-9 from Auburn was called in to track the suspects but lost the scent.

At approximately 0620 the Holden Police began to receive reports of tagging and vandalism in the Salisbury Street/Cranbrook Drive/Mark Circle and Fisher Road area. This vandalism consisted of spray painting houses, cars, and driveways and the breaking of motor vehicle windows.

At this time it is unknown if the same suspects are involved.

If you recognize the picture of the shoe and believe you know who it belongs to, please contact the Holden Police Department. All calls will remain anonymous of the caller wishes. The Holden Police Department will provide a reward for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for this damage.

If any resident sees or hears anything unusual at night they are requested to call the Holden Police Department immediately.

Holden officers were assisted in this investigation by officers from West Boylston and Massachusetts State Police.
