

- Profile
- Logout
- Subscribe
- Get News Updates
- Print Edition
- RSS Feed

Count on Charter for Savings! Lock in your rate until 2011! Call 1-888-GET CHARTER

THE Landmark

HOLDEN, FAXTON, PRINCETON, RUTLAND, STERLING

- Shopping
- Real Estate
- Services
- Automotive
- Home & Garden
- Classifieds
- Photo Galleries

News Holden News

- Front Page
- Holden News
- Paxton News
- Princeton News
- Sterling News
- Rutland News
- Regional News
- Editorials & Opinions
- Letters
- Sports & Recreation
- Schools
- Obituaries
- People
- Business
- Fire & Police

Special Sections

Holden Police are alerting residents to lock their vehicles, whether they the cars in the driveway or a garage, after two incidents in town. Two men were arrested late on Wednesday, March 18, after police pursued suspects in an equipment theft on Broad St.

Sean Campbell Weilbrenner, 23, of 85 Kalmar St., Worcester, and Dimitri Michael Saffron, 22, of 33 Howland Terrace, Worcester, are Holden Police took the two into custody after pursuing them in the woods off Broad Street. The two left behind a vehicle belonging to Rutland Police and a K9 unit were requested to help with the search, but police took the two into custody less than 20 minutes after the Officer Anthony Gribbons is investigating.

Holden Police began investigating another string of vehicle break-ins Friday morning, March 20. The investigation was initiated after a According to police, an officer patrolling on Sterling Road found a trail of debris that included the kind of items that might be stolen from About 11 vehicles on North Street, Mason Road, Wachusett Street and General Hobbs Road have been reported rifled-through or robbed. All the vehicles broken into were left unlocked.