Cambridge warrant arrest made

BY MELISSA MCKEON MMCKEON@HOLDENLANDMARK.COM

Keith E. Chestna, 19, of 78 Main St., Princeton, has been arrested by Holden Police on warrants issued by Cambridge District Court on July 2 for intimidating a witness, threatening to commit a crime and assault and battery.

The charges stem from an incident at the Gateway Motel in Cambridge.

Cambridge Police issued an alert for Chestna and Holden Police stopped his vehicle around 10:30 a.m. as he was proceeding south on Route 122A in Holden on July 4.

Chestna, a member of the class of 2009 at Wachusett Regional High School, was one of ten students charged with covering the parking areas at WRHS with graffiti on April Fool's Day. He was then charged less than two weeks later with disturbing the peace and possession of alcohol by a person under 21 after an incident in Holden.

That second arrest brought further reprimands from Judge Mark E. Noonan when Chestna and his ten fellow graffiti artists received their punishment for the graffiti incident on May 15 in Leominster District Court. Noonan told Chestna and Justin D. Hayes, who was arrested with Chestna on April 23, that those cases would go to jury trial if they violated their probation.
