Holden, Rutland men charged in home invasions in Wales

BY MELISSA MCKEON MMCKEON@HOLDENLANDMARK.COM

Holden police arrested two Holden men and one Rutland man October 4 on warrants stemming from an August 23 home invasion in Wales, Massachusetts, Holden Police Chief George Sherrill reported October 5.

Derek V. Thomas, 19, and Abraham Cabrera, 26, both of 1229 Main St., Apt. E, and Michael J. Kenneway, Jr., 18, of 276 Pommogusset Rd., Rutland, were arrested at Thomas's and Cabrera's apartment at 1229 Main Street in Holden without incident at 7 p.m. on October 4 by Holden Patrolmen Jonathan Bourget and Timothy Sherblom with the assistance of Lt. Mark Kent of the Worcester County Sheriff's Office K-9 division.

The three suspects were charged in Palmer District Court on October 5. Thomas faces eleven charges, including three counts of assault with a dangerous weapon, three counts of armed assault in a dwelling with a firearm, one count each of home invasion, armed robbery with a firearm, armed burglary and assault, assault and battery with a dangerous weapon and assault to murder. Cabrera is charged with armed robbery, armed assault in a dwelling, home invasion and armed burglary and assault. Kenneway is being charged with home invasion and unarmed burglary and assault.

The Palmer District Court Clerk's office said Cabrera and Kenneway are being held on $ 50,000 cash bail; Thomas is being held on $ 100,000 cash bail. All are being held at the Hampden County Correctional Facility in Ludlow, Mass.

Sherrill said no drugs, firearms or stolen goods were recovered during the arrest.
