Home invasion investigation

Police are investigating a possible connection between the victim of a February 16 home invasion-robbery on Kendall Road and the suspect.

Scott Hoover, 43, of Kendall Road called 911 Saturday morning before 8 a.m. and said a male intruder flashed an FBI card to gain entry. He said the person then tied him up and covered his head with a sheet before stealing medication and cash from the home. Hoover was not injured.

Another resident was not home at the time. Hoover told police the intruder was not armed.

Hoover gave a description of the person and the vehicle in which he escaped. The vehicle was driven by another suspect.

Holden Police Chief George Sherrill said Hoover was able to give police information about possible suspects.

Detective's Chris Carey and Al Bourget are investigating. - M.M.
