Breaking news: Juvenile arrested after alleged knife threat

A Mountview seventh grader was arrested by Holden Police on Tuesday, Nov. 9, after students and police say he brought a knife on a bus to the school and made threatening statements to a fellow student. No one was hurt in the incident. A fellow student reported the incident to school administration after the bus arrived at the school and the student who allegedly made the threats was removed from the cafeteria and the incident was investigated, Mountview Principal C. Erik Githmark said in a statement sent home to parents Tuesday. The 13-year-old boy was brought to the Holden Police Station and charged with carrying a dangerous weapon on school grounds and assault with a dangerous weapon. Githmark said he was proud of the student who reported the incident and assured parents that their children are safe at the school. — M.M.
