Lost sneaker leads to 2 juvie arrests

Two Holden juveniles are being charged with breaking and entering and larceny under $250 after police located the owner of a sneaker left behind after a police pursuit.

The pursuit took place Aug. 3 after police received calls reporting vandalism to cars in the Flagler Drive area. A K-9 unit was called in, but no suspects were apprehended. A sneaker left behind when the suspects fled was the only evidence. A subsequent investigation by Holden officer Todd Ventris led to information and questioning of the suspects, who confessed to the car breaks.

What police believe is a separate incident was reported around 6 a.m. that same day, when homeowners on Salisbury Street, Cranbrook Drive, Mark Circle and Fisher Road awakened to discover that vandals had spray painted houses, cars and driveways, and had broken vehicle windows.

No suspects have yet been identified in that case. — M.M.
