Two are charged in theft attempt

HOLDEN— Police say two men attempted to make off with tools and copper tubing from a local construction site.

Kevin F. O'Brien, 42, of Southbridge Street, Worcester, and Robert J. Parodeau, 39, of 926 Southbridge St., Worcester, were trying to steal the items from a construction site early Monday morning, according to police. Holden Police Officer Todd Ventres was on patrol just after midnight Monday when he saw suspicious activity at the construction site. Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Parodeau were each charged with breaking and entering, receiving stolen property, larceny over $250 and destruction of property. They were arraigned in Leominster District Court Monday.
