HOLDEN — A 28-year-old man died yesterday in a motorcycle accident, police said.

The man, whose identity was not released, may have lost control of his motorcycle and skidded on sand on the paved shoulder of the road, Sgt. Timothy J. Regele said. The motorcycle continued on and hit a tree in a wooded area about 10 or 15 feet from the road, he said.

The motorcycle was traveling north on Wachusett Street in the Unionville Pond area, just north of Bullard Street, when the accident occurred. Police were summoned at 3:47 p.m.

The victim was wearing a helmet, Sgt. Regele said. Although no other vehicle was involved in the accident, other motorists witnessed it, the sergeant said.

The motorcyclist was taken by Holden Fire Department ambulance to UMass Memorial Medical Center — University Campus in Worcester, where he was pronounced dead, Sgt. Regele said.

The accident was investigated by Patrolmen Adam J. Porcaro and Greg B. Sculthorpe. The district attorney's office was notified.
